

AWARENESS • ADVOCACY • EDUCATION

Whether you are newly diagnosed or a long-time member of the allergy community, FAACT is your home for education, advocacy, and connections with other parents and adults affected by food allergies and life-threatening anaphylaxis.

FAACT's mission is to educate, advocate, and raise awareness for all individuals and families affected by food allergies and life-threatening anaphylaxis. FAACT is also your voice for food allergy awareness. Whether it's keeping children safe at school, responding to food allergy bullying, dealing with workplace issues, or simply taking the family out for a bite to eat, this Web site has all the facts you need to manage food allergies and stay healthy.

Join us for educational training and support, including webinars and in-person conferences across the country. Connect with FAACT through social media for the latest food allergy and anaphylaxis research. Become a FAACT "patron" to support our mission and receive weekly e-mails with news and practical tips.

FAACT is here to support you in managing your food allergies – today, tomorrow, and into the future. We have the "FAACTs" about food allergies and anaphylaxis.
